Grammar - Reported requests and commands

Read grammar theory in UPBEAT p. 132 and analyse grammar table p. 73 SB. Then do ex. 4/73 SB, 1,2/68 UB.

Order of the adjectives in a sentence.

When describing something we often use more than one adjective to do that. There is a rule for that and the following poem might help you remember and understand the rule.

In my NICE BIG house	OPINION, SIZE
There's an OLD ROUND box	AGE, SHAPE
For my GREEN SWISS hat	COLOUR, ORIGIN
And my WOOLLY WALKING socks.	MATERIAL, PURPOSE

You can say: I have a beautiful new Guess top. (opinion, age, origin)

Or: My dad bought a German polycarbonate racing car. (origin, material, purpose)

Personal opinion is always at the beginning.

Do ex. 6, 7/73, 3,4,5/69

EDINBURGH FESTIVAL FRINGE

Ray White is spending a week at this amazing Scottish festival – the Edinburgh Fringe. Here's his first YouthPress report.

I've never seen so many people and all of them are having fun! Everywhere you go, performers in weird and wonderful costumes approach you. They all tell you to go to their show, which of course is the best in town. You couldn't possibly go to all of them.

So far, my favourites Mickey's Marvellous Magic Show, which I saw yesterday. It was in a huge old theatre, but there were only about thirty people in the audience, never mind, Mickey was brilliant! He asked someone to write down a number on a card and told him not to show anyone. Then he pulled out a card from his pocket and there was the same number. Of course I thought I was a fix – but then he asked me to write down a name. I couldn't believe it when he had the same name in his pocket. Spooky!

Outside, lots of people were watching a man on a unicycle. He was cycling backwards and forwards inside a big square area in the street. He threw a little red rubber ball to a girl in the crowd and told her to throw it back. He caught it, then he did the same with two balls, then three, then four, then five – it was awesome.

I'm off to see the Fearless Flying Giraffes now. Sounds interesting! I'll let you know!
